A breife of these matters contayned in this Booke and in what folio, theire especiall, to be founde.

In the first Brauncke

Of this Booke, is sett forthe the Royall descent of the Kinges, Strounge from the Saxons Blood; with beginneth at Egbert, the first that ruled entire monarke of that famelie, And endeth with the Normanne Conquest, Fol: 7.

The Second Brauncke, (or rounde rounded tree) is but A indexe, (or rather an Index) of that will next followeth. Fol. 13.

The third Brauncke sheweth the Genealogie of the most Royall, mightie, and submitted Kinges of England, From William the Conquerr (or William the first) And in what manner the Succession of the Crowne of this Lande hath continewed, even unto the most Blessed person of our dread Sacred Queene. Fol. 15.

The fourth Brauncke, is the Alliaunce, and mariage betwixt England, and Straunge, whereby Englandes Title, and right to that Crowne appeareth. Fol. 37.

Lastly A Briefe declaration of the tayntes and distroppinous of the Kinges from the Conquest, untill this present Day Fol. 45

Herein is the simplicitie of mine meaninge purpose, maie procure desired acceptation, Then rest perswaded that the industrious Lande, is fullie prepared, Speedie to produce matter for more Ample Contentment.
